1. Introduction

Our website uses cookies set by us and by third parties. Further information on these cookies is set out below.

By continuing to browse this site, you are agreeing to our use of cookies. You may opt-out of the use of cookies at any time by adjusting your cookie privacy settings to manage your cookies being processed via your browser settings.

You block cookies by activating the setting on your browser that allows you to refuse the setting of all or some cookies. However, if you use your browser settings to block all cookies (including essential cookies) you may not be able to access all the facilities on our website.

2. What Is A Cookie?

A cookie is a small file of letters and numbers that we store on your browser or the hard drive of your computer if you agree. Cookies contain information that is transferred to your computer's hard drive.

3. Information About Our Use of Cookies

Our website uses cookies to distinguish you from other users of our website. This helps us to provide you with a good experience when you browse our website and allows us to improve our site.

4. Cookies That We Use

We use the following cookies:

a. Strictly necessary cookies

These are cookies that are required for the operation of our website. These cookies mean that our website can remember you as you browse around and are used.

b. Functionality cookies

These are used to recognise you when you return to our website. This enables us to personalise our content for you and remember your preferences (for example, your choice of language or region).

c. Analytical cookies

They allow us to recognise and count the number of visitors and to see how visitors move around our website when they are using it. This helps us to improve the way our website works, for example, by ensuring that users are finding what they are looking for easily.

d. Marketing cookies

These cookies record your visit to our website, the pages you have visited and the links you have followed. We will use this information to make our website and the advertising displayed on it more relevant to your interests. We may also share this information with third parties for this purpose.

Where we include content or code from third parties on our website, these third parties may also make use of cookies, over which we have no control. A list of all third-party cookies that are used on this Website and what each is used for appears below.

You can find more information about the individual cookies we use and the purposes for which we use them in the table below:
